Dedication: This scholarship is in honor of my parents Irshad and Rizwan.

Coordinator's note: Suleman is one of the most hospitable and generous alumni that I am honored to have as my friend. One time he took me to a few Pakistani shops in New Orleans and in each shop, he had people that he had helped, usually taking care of them when they did not have any money or insurance. His contributions to KEMCAANA and APPNA are unmatched. He was instrumental in making me the life member of KEMCAANA. I am also very appreciative of the fact that he is the first one from his class to establish a THANKS scholarship. Like many of his classmates, he already has also contributed for establishment of a KE scholarship.
